Florida House Passes Legislation to Streamline Economic Development

Tallahassee, FL- The Florida House of Representatives today passed CS/HB 1325, which makes important reforms to Florida's economic incentive programs.

"As Florida continues to grow, we must make sure our state has a dynamic and robust environment for businesses to be able to create jobs," said House Speaker Steve Crisafulli (R-Merritt Island). "I thank Representative Boyd for his dedication to strengthening our economic development toolbox while also protecting Florida taxpayers."

"This legislation takes important steps to streamline and modernize Florida's economic development programs, while providing greater accountability and transparency, to ensure Florida remains a leader in national economic growth," said Rep. Jim Boyd (R-Bradenton).
